MEDICINAL.

Take Simmons' Liver Regulator

For all diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Spleen. WILL CURE

DYSPEPSIA.

I MUST OWN that your Simmons' Liver Regulator fully deserves the popularity it has attained. As a family medicine it has no equal. It cured my wife of a malady I had counted incurable -that wolfsbane of our Amorican people, Dyspensia.
A. E. P. ALBERT,
Professor in Nicholas Public School, Parish of Terrebonne, La. MALARIGUS FEVERS

You are at liberty to use my name in praise of your Regulator as prepared by you, and recommend it to every one as the best preventive The subscriber respectfully announces that for Fever and Ague in the world. I plant in southwestern Georgis, near Albany, Georgia, and must say that it has done more good on my plantation among my negroes than any medicine I ever used. It supersedes quinine if taken in time. ulator is superior to any other remedy for Malarial Diseases among children, and it has a large sale in this section of Georgia.—[W. M. Russell, Albany, Ga.

CONSTIPATION. TESTIMONY OF THE CHIEF JUSTICE OF GEORGIA.—I have used Simmons' Liver Regulator for constipation of my bowels, caused by a temporary derangement of the liver, for the last three or four years, and always, when used according to the directions, with decided benefit. I think it is a good medicine for the derangement of the liver—at least such has been my personal experience in the use of it.

HIRAM WARNER,

Chief Justice of Georgia.

SICK HEADACHE. EDITORIAL-We have tested its virtue: personally, and know that for Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Throbbing Headache, it is the best medicine the world eversaw. We have tried forty other remedics before Simmons' Liver Regulator, but none of them gave us more than temporary relief; but the Regulator not only relieved but cured us.-[Editor Telegraph and Messenger, Macon, Gs.

COLIC AND GRUEBS IN HORSES. Having had during the last twenty years of my life to attend to Racing Stock, and having had so much trouble with them with Colic, Grubbs, &c, gave me a great deal of trouble. Having heard of your Regulator as a cure for the above diseases, I concluded to try it. After trying one PACKAGE IN MASH I found it to cure in every instance It is only to be tried to prove what I have said in its praise. I can send you certificates from Augusta, Clinton and Macon? as to the cure of horse.

The Election Law. An Acr to Amend and Re-enact Section 16, Chapter 8, Code of 1873, in Relation to General and Special Elections. | Approved

April 2, 1877.]
1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly, That section 16, chapter 8, of Code of 1873. be amended and re-enacted so as to read as follows: -

Section 16. The judge to whom any ballot is delivered shall, upon receipt thereof, pronounce with an audible voice the name of the person from whom the ballot is received; and if the name of the person is found on the registration book, and he produce a receipt of the proper officer for the payment to the State, at any time prior to the day of election, of the capitation tax required by law for the preceding year. or on failure to produce such receipt he shall show by satisfactory evidence that the same has been paid prior to the day of election, or that he has attained the age of twenty one years since the expiration of said preceding year, and there being no objection made, the said judge shall, without open-ing said ballot, or permitting the same to be examined (except to ascertain whether it is a single ballot,) deposit the same in the ballot-box; whereupon the name of the elector shall be checked on the registration book by one of the judges and entered by the clerk of election on the poll books and correctly numbered in accordance with the number of electors theretofore recorded, and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "age" if he shall be permitted to vote on account of age as aforesaid, and the said judge of election shall cancel said capitation tax receipt before returning it to the voter; provided, when a registered voter has changed his place of residence from one voting district to another, if he has a cer-tificate showing that he was duly registered in his former voting district, and that his name has since his removal been crased from the registration books of said voting district, it shall be sufficient evidence to enable him, on producing a receipt for the payment of the capitation tax, or accounting for his failure to produce such receipt as aforesaid, to vote in the district in which he resides, and his name shall be registered on the registration book by the registrar, if he be present, or by one of the judges of election; provided, further that in cities and towns containing over two thousand inhabitants the name of such person shall only be entered by the registrar on the days named

2. This act shall be in force from its passage. MR. WADE. - Times change; so do men. So late as 1860 Mr. Wade said in the United States Senate:-"There is in these United ates a race of men who are poor, weak, uninfluential, incapable of taking care of themselves. I mean the free negroes, who are despised by all-repudiated by all; outcasts upon the face of the earth, without any fault of theirs that I know of; but they are the victims of a deep rooted prejudice, and I do not stand here to argue whether that prejudice be right or wrong. I know such to be the fact. It is there immovable. It is perfectly impossible that these two races can inhabit the same place and be presperous and happy. I see that this species of population are just as abhorrent to the Southern States, and perhaps more so, than to the North. Many of those States are now, as I think, passing most unjust laws to drive these men off or to subject them to slavery; they are flocking now into the free States, and we have objections to them. Now, the proposition is that this great government owes it to just.co. owes it to those individuals, owes it to itself and to the free white population of the North to provide a means whereby this class of ucfortunate men may emigrate to some congenial clime, where they may be maintained to the mutual benefit of all, both white and black. This will insure a separation of the races. Let them go into the tropics. There, I understand, are vast tracts of the most fertile and inviting lands, in a climate perfectly congenial to that class of men, where the negro will be predomi nant; where his nature seems to be improved. and all his faculties, both mental and physical, are fully developed, and where the white man degenerates in the same proportion as the black man prospers. Let them go there; let them be in the ninth section of the preceding chapter.

separated. It is easy to do it." A SPANISH STORY. - A strange story that is wafted from the north of Spain into the Pall Mall Gazette brings to mind a chapter in "Midshipman Easy." A landed proprietor refused to receive the consolation of religion. His family sent for the parish priest, but the sick man declined to receive him and the priest withdrew, declaring that the devil would come in person to carry off so hardened a sinner as soon as he was dead. A few hours afterward the sick man died, and while the family were watching over the body the door of the room was opened with a great noise, and there appeared upon the scene a personage arrayed in red, brandishing a pitchfork, dragging a long tail after him, and smelling very strongly of sulphur. His appearance created so much terror that the women present fainted, and the men rushed out of the room by another door. A man servant armed himself with a revolver and made his way to the room. For the moment he was terrified by the appearance of the devil, who by this time had got the body in his arms; but mastering his fears, he fired three barrels of his revolver at him, and the devil fell to the ground. His majesty proved to be the parish sexton, who, by the orders of the pricet, had disguised himself as Satan. Four priests, who are suspected of complicity in this attempt to work upon the superstitious feelings of the family, have been taken into custody.
